

STAKING TECHNICIAN

Cloverland Electric Cooperative, a member-owned utility, in Michigan's Eastern Upper Peninsula is seeking a motivated individual willing to work and live in the Dafter, Michigan area.

Duties consist of preparing work orders, staking sheets, construction drawings, and service cost estimates.

Ideal candidate will have at least a two-year degree in Electrical or Mechanical Engineering and four years of work experience in electrical distribution construction or design. Ideal candidate will be proficient in written and verbal communication.

The starting wage and benefit packages are competitive within the electric utility industry. Employment applications may be downloaded at www.cloverland.com. Mail your resume, letter of interest, completed employment application, to the address below by July 18, 2018. No phone calls please.

Cloverland Electric Cooperative is an equal opportunity employer.

Staking Technician
Attention: Human Resources Manager
Cloverland Electric Cooperative
725 E. Portage Avenue
Sault Ste. Marie, MI 49783